

Resolution for a Program Proposal for A BA in Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies Proposal

WHEREAS, an interdisciplinary group of faculty proposed a BA in Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies, and

WHEREAS, the proposed program has a thorough curriculum developed by a group of faculty with expertise in the field, and

WHEREAS, the proposed program will offer students an opportunity to critically investigate the creation, reconstruction, and perpetuation of gender, sex, and sexuality systems and their connections to other operations of power and inequities, and

WHEREAS, the proposed program emphasizes student empowerment, social justice and political engagement, and

WHEREAS, the emphasis of the proposed program is closely aligned with the mission of the College, and

WHEREAS, a proposed curriculum includes courses from American Studies, English, History & Philosophy, Modern Languages, Politics, Economics & Law, Psychology, Public Health and Sociology, and

WHEREAS, all of these Academic Departments voted to support the proposed program and,

WHEREAS, the proposed program is primarily built upon existing courses and thus requires little additional resources,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Faculty Senate approve the Program Proposal for a BA in Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies

Submitted by the Curriculum and Academic Planning Committee (CAP), April 30, 2022

The Proposal approved by CAP on April 29, 2022

The Resolution approved by Faculty Senate on May 6, 2022

[CAP Membership Spring 2022]

Svetlana Jovic, Yu Lei, Matthew Lippert, Orquidea Morales, Sheyi Oladipo, Dana Sinclair, Kerry Weir, and Ryoko Yamamoto (Chair)