

Teaching for Learning Center Report Summary 12/03/04

TLC GOAL

- ✚ To promote best practices in teaching and learning on campus.
- ✚ To assist the faculty with instructional technologies.
- ✚ To encourage faculty to present their research work.
- ✚ To invite visiting scholars to present their work
- ✚ To create an environment that initiates and sustains a dialogue among faculty in regards to their teaching, learning, and innovations.

FALL 04 EVENTS

- 1) October 1, 2004: Faculty Panel Discussion (part 2) welcoming New Faculty and Orientation.
- 2) October 13, 2004: A joint Event with CSTEP: " Knowing Yourself: Learning Style, Multiple Intelligence and personality"
- 3) October 22, 2004: Teacher and Learning Conference, Presentation, SUNY New Paltz, "A Visual Learning System across Discipline", Dr. A. Ebrahimi.
- 4) November 19, 2004: Joint seminar with ARPT and UUP. "Promotion, Tenure and Beyond"
- 5) November 22, 2004: Visiting Scholar Presentation: A Success Story: Curriculum Design and Redesign Project Across the Disciplines for Teaching and Learning by Web. Prof. Nicola Martinez Director of Distance Learning at Empire State College On Mon.

Events proposal for Spring 05

Blackboard training panel discussions on pros and cons of BB.

Old Westbury Faculty Research Conference: A Full day faculty presentation.

Panel Discussion on Best Teaching Practices in Campus (Part 3) dedicated to adjuncts and full part time faculty.

Room for Improvement

Center is open for use to all faculty. However, we are in process of updating the lab and its equipments.

Suggestions& Ideas

Please let The Committee know: Zenaida Madurka, Dunken Quarless, Fernando Nieto, Kate Velsor, Tom Delgiudice and Alireza Ebrahimi ebrahimia@oldwestbury.edu